Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

Thank you for addressing our Sixth Annual Washington Conference.

It was important for our audience to hear your comprehensive assessment of America's position in the world today, the role of the CIA in meeting the challenges we face and the steps you are taking to build the capability and morale of the agency. Our CEOs realize that you do not make such speeches often and were honored that you chose to meet with us at the State Department.

Thank you again for your quick response to our request for a copy of your remarks, which we are circulating to the participants.

Sincerely,

Gordon Stewart

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

[REDACTED]
Acting Director, Public Affairs

STAT

SUBJECT: Address to the Sixth Annual American Stock Exchange (AMEX) Conference

1. Action Requested: None. This is background information for your address to the American Stock Exchange (AMEX) Conference, Tuesday, 12 June, 9:00 a.m. - 9:45 a.m., Loy Henderson Hall, State Department Building.

- Arrangements: You are requested to be at the "C" Street Entrance at 8:50 a.m. where you will be met by Arthur Levitt, Jr., Chairman of the Board of the American Stock Exchange, and Ellen Herman, Director, Corporate Communications of the AMEX. You are asked to allow 25 minutes for remarks and 20 minutes for questions and answers. Former DDCI Frank Carlucci will introduce you and act as moderator during the question and answer period. Microphones will be placed in the audience. John A. Cervieri, Managing Trustee of Property Capital Trust, will have spoken before you and Senators Daniel Moynihan and John Glenn will follow you. Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger will have addressed the group on the previous day. Opposite is a complete agenda and brochure showing the lay-out of the room.
- Audience: These 250 chief executives and their wives represent companies based in 46 states which are listed on the American Stock Exchange. The companies represent a broad cross-section of American business, from basic manufacturing to such currently favored industries as health care and telecommunications.
- About the Conference: The purpose of the Conference is to provide the chief executives of some of America's fastest growing companies the opportunity to communicate directly with government leaders who make policies that affect their businesses. The 1984 AMEX Conference, "Washington VI: A Time of Choice," will focus on the vital options facing America in this election year. They will be interested in your perspective on national security issues. Last year Vice President George Bush, Treasury Secretary Donald Regan, Senator Howard Baker, and Chairman of the House Tip O'Neill spoke to this group.
